Hello

Here, you'll find everything from a life sized mammoth to cutting edge contemporary art. Eight galleries. Seven exhibition spaces. Six national collections. Two million objects, archives, film, photographs, figureheads – even a ceramic crab called Colin.

Whether you've got half an hour, all day, are on your own or have the children with you: welcome. There's no 'right' way to take it all in and you certainly don't have to like everything inside.

Discover

You can't miss the flight of fourteen ship's figureheads, each with their own tale of life at sea. Discover more about Plymouth's epic relationship with the oceans in Port of Plymouth.

Travel the world in 100 Journeys and film your own newsreel in Media Lab. Dive into our archival collections in Active Archives. Book a research slot in the Cottonian Research Room if you'd like to delve deeper.

Play

There's plenty to keep young minds and hands engaged. Pick up a family-friendly trail from the welcome desk for a fun tour of the building, or get creative at one of the Explore More stations next to the shop. Don't miss Mammoth, which is filled with thousands of specimens. Mildred can't wait to say hello.

Relax

For the best food in the city, visit The Box Kitchen & Bar or The Little Box on Tavistock Place. Children can choose from their own kid and pocket-friendly menu. Our eco-friendly shop is packed with products by local makers and inspired by our collections. All proceeds help support The Box.
